

ANNE CLARISE T. MAGPANTAY

Pangao, Ibaan, Batangas
Philippines

+63921-751-6396
anneclarisemagpantay@gmail.com

Skills

A licensed Electronics Engineer with experience and 10 months as Product Development Engineer with a demonstrative experience in improving existing products, utilizing present design and adapting to fast-paced changing conditions.

Able to work as a team member and as an individual contributor. A person committed to ongoing learning and further career development. And has a capability to commit to delivering quality outcomes on time.

Experience

Samsung Electro-Mechanics Philippines Corp.

Product Development Engineer - Sorting Process

December 2021 ~ Present

- Managed and responsible for transferring models from the company's other plants in the Sorting Process.
- Incharge of developing and modifying sorting (electrical conditions) in sorting the products.
- Identified, alerted management and corrected multiple issues regarding incorrect conditions being used, that causes to increase the yield and reliability passing rate.
- Supported the analysis and correlation of reliability tests required for each product.
- Led multiple in process failure investigations to determine root cause while establishing corrective actions for the long run.

PLDT

Field Service Section Intern

June ~ August 2018

- Resolved issues and conflicts that arose during the installation of the telephone facility.
 - Assisted customer related issues to accelerate and ensured the installation and connectivity is par with client's satisfaction.
-

Education

University of Batangas / Electronics Engineering

June 2017 ~ May 2019

Batangas State University / Electronics Engineering

June 2013 ~ June 2017

Certification

Electronics Engineer – Board Passer (2021)

Electronics Technician – Board Passer (2021)